1. OVERVIEW

Merton College proposes to appoint a Stipendiary Lecturer in Music to teach undergraduates for an average of 6 hours per week in full term. The appointment will be for the period 1 October 2023 until 30 September 2024. This is a fixed-term appointment to cover a one-year teaching need.

2. MERTON COLLEGE

Merton College was founded in 1264 by Walter de Merton, and is one of the oldest colleges within the University of Oxford. It was the first fully self-governing college in the University and was originally founded for twenty fellows, with undergraduates being formally admitted in the early 1380s. Over the centuries, many eminent scholars and cultural leaders have called Merton home including four Nobel Prize winners and an Abel Prize winner. Merton College has a strong commitment to excellence in research and teaching across a range of subjects in the Humanities, Social Sciences and Sciences. The College community currently comprises around 580 students (310 undergraduates and 265 postgraduates), some 70 Fellows, 50 other academic staff and over 100 members of support staff. The college strives to create a diverse, welcoming, inclusive and supportive community in which its students can thrive.

3. MUSIC AT MERTON

Merton College currently admits 3-4 students per year for Music. Information about the Music degree offered by the University can be found here. Merton College also has approximately nine postgraduates studying for taught and research degrees in Music at any one time.

The postholder will work closely with the College’s Tutor and Lecturers in Music: Professor Naomi Waltham-Smith (Tutor in Music), Mr Ben Nicholas (Director of Chapel Music, Reed Rubin Organist and Lecturer in Music) and Mr Dylan Price (Lecturer in Music).

4. RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE LECTURER

Working with the College’s Tutor and Lecturers in Music, the main responsibilities of the Lecturer will be as follows:

(a) To share in the organisational responsibility for the undergraduate degree of Music, including organising and overseeing external tutorial provision in subject areas not covered by Merton personnel.
(b) To plan and deliver 6 weighted hours\(^1\) of tutorial teaching in each week of full term. Teaching will be required for the following:

i. the pre-1900 Music Special Topics option for first year undergraduates (currently 'Machaut's Songs');

ii. a minimum of two of the Topics in Music History pre-1900 for second and third year undergraduates (currently 'Vernacular Song in the long 13\(^{th}\) Century', 'Italian Madrigals' and '18\(^{th}\) Century Opera');

iii. aspects of Musical Thought and Scholarship for the Final Honour School, and Foundations in the Study of Music for Prelims (first-year); and

iv. dissertation and project supervision as appropriate.

Information about the course structure and the papers that are taught can be found on the Music Faculty's website.

(c) To take on the role of Director of Studies for a number of Music undergraduates, if requested.

(d) To ensure that the students taught receive timely feedback on their work during term, both week by week and in termly reports on the reporting database, and to attend Warden’s progress meetings at the end of term for undergraduates reading Music, as required. Concerns regarding under-performance should be conveyed to the relevant Director of Studies and the Senior Tutor.

(e) To set, invigilate, and mark internal examinations ('Collections').

(f) To participate fully in College admissions procedures for undergraduates, including reading UCAS forms, evaluating work, interviewing, and recording evidence used to assess applications and inform selection decisions. The Lecturer will also be expected to contribute to outreach and access initiatives, including undergraduate Open Days.

(g) To undertake academic administration (e.g. the planning and organisation of students’ options; the endorsement of applications made by students for travel grants and other College assistance; the writing of references, the selection of books for the College Library etc.).

(h) To provide induction, study skills and examination preparation support for students studying undergraduate Music in all years, as required.

(i) To undertake pastoral responsibilities in liaison with other Directors of Studies and the College Welfare Team, as appropriate.

(j) To act as College Advisor to a number of postgraduate students studying Music at the College, if requested.

\(^1\) The weighting system means that hours spent teaching groups larger than one person count for more than one hour.
Attendance is strongly encouraged at College events to which Lecturers are invited.

A more detailed guide to tutorial responsibilities and other information, entitled a Handbook for Fellows and Lecturers, will be communicated to the successful candidate by the Senior Tutor following appointment.

The Lecturer will be subject to the College’s Statutes and Bylaws in force from time to time.

5. CRITERIA FOR THE APPOINTMENT

To be successful, candidates will need to show that they meet the following selection criteria:

(i) To have completed, or be about to complete, a doctorate in Music (musicology and/or music theory).

(ii) To be willing and able to successfully teach the areas outlined in 4(b) above.

(iii) To demonstrate the ability to be an effective and inspiring teacher of Music, particularly to undergraduates of high ability in a tutorial (small group) system.

(iv) To have the potential to discharge competently the full range of academic administrative duties, besides teaching, upon which the effective operation of Music as a subject within the College depends.

(v) To be able to contribute to the work of the team of academic staff in Music at Merton College.

(vi) To be prepared to be involved in undergraduate admissions and access work, and to undertake appropriate training for the role, including mandatory requirements for undergraduate admissions.

6. REMUNERATION AND CONDITIONS OF THE STIPENDIARY LECTURERSHIP

The stipend for the lecturership will be £16,674 p.a. (current rate). A 6-hour lecturer will also be entitled during the appointment to:

- Enrolment in the Universities Superannuation Scheme.
- Free meals at the Common Table when the kitchens are open, with certain designated exceptions.
- Membership of the Senior Common Room, for which a charge is payable.
- A teaching room, although not necessarily for the lecturer’s exclusive use.
- A research allowance of up to £500 for qualifying expenses. To be eligible for this allowance, the lecturer must not have an additional substantive post or be a postgraduate student of Merton College.
7. RIGHT TO WORK IN THE UK

The appointment will be conditional on satisfactory provision of proof of the right to work in the UK.

8. PROCEDURE FOR APPLICATION AND APPOINTMENT

Applications

9. Equal Opportunities

Merton College is an equal opportunities employer.

The policy and practice of Merton College require that all staff are afforded equal opportunities within employment. Entry into employment with the College and progression within employment will be determined only by personal merit and the application of criteria which are related to the duties of each particular post and the relevant salary structure. In all cases, ability to perform the job will be the primary consideration. Subject to statutory provisions, no applicant or member of staff will be treated less favourably than another because of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage or civil partnership, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation.
