CHAPEL

MICHAELMAS TERM 2024

MERTON COLLEGE CHAPEL is open to all members of the College community as a place of worship and quiet reflection. The Chapel is part of the Church of England but the daily offering of worship is sustained by Christians from many different traditions. If you would like to read or serve in the Chapel, please contact one of the Chaplains or another member of the Chapel Team.

CHORAL FOUNDATION The College Choir sings on Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and our Choristers sing on Mondays and Wednesdays. The Choristers are drawn from a number of local schools across Oxford. This term's music can be found on the Chapel and Choir pages of the College website.

WORSHIP ON SUNDAYS The main service of the week is normally at 5.45pm on Sunday. Alternating between Choral Evensong and a Choral Eucharist (Holy Communion), the College Choir sings at this candlelit service, which finishes in time for Formal Hall. The Sunday morning service begins at 9.00am and lasts about half an hour. This quieter, more reflective service alternates between the Eucharist and Morning Prayer, and is followed by breakfast. Our Chapel collections this term will be donated to Doctors without Borders, a charity providing humanitarian medical care in conflict zones and countries affected by endemic diseases.

THE CHAPLAINS

The Revd Lyndon Webb (Fellows' 3.9, lyndon.webb@merton.ox.ac.uk) is the Acting Chaplain. Lyndon has particular responsibility for pastoral care within the Chapel community, for leading the discussion groups, and developing new initiatives.

This term's Visiting Chaplain is the Revd Canon Dr Chris Collingwood, who writes: 'I'm so looking forward to getting to know as many of you as possible, whether you consider yourself to be a person of faith or not. I'd love to hear about what excites, inspires and motivates you, as well as anything that causes you difficulty, struggle or perplexity, whether you'd describe such things as overtly spiritual or religious or not. Please don't hesitate to make contact.' Chris (Fellows' 3.2, christopher.collingwood@merton.ox.ac.uk), is happy to speak in confidence with any member of College (regardless of religious affiliation) concerning any matter.
